ORDINANCE NO. 04-2014 OF THE CITY OF BURLINGTON ESTABLISHING AN ARTS AND CULTURAL DISTRICT IN THE CITY OF BURLINGTON

HEREAS, the Common Council for the City of Burlington desires to promote art, culture and tourism in the City through the facilitation of an environment wherein artists can live and work, thus positively influencing the lives of Burlington City residents and visitors, and enhancing the City's economy; and

HEREAS, the Common Council for the City of Burlington has determined that it would be advantageous and appropriate to establish and create an Arts and Cultural District within the City in order to attract artistic businesses and cultural institutions within a designated area of the City; and

HEREAS, the Common Council for the City of Burlington wishes to amend the City's zoning regulations and allow E. Union Street from High Street to Stacy Street to be developed to accommodate the promotion of arts in the community in a manner consistent with the Master Plan; and HEREAS, private property owners may benefit from an arts and cultural district designation based on the increased commerce, owners of property in the proposed arts and cultural district should work in conjunction with the City of Burlington's efforts in this regard. Therefore, the City encourages property owners of mixed-use structures (i.e. buildings with a business on the first floor and residential units on the upper floors) to offer financial incentives to new arts-oriented businesses to locate and lease currently vacant first floor commercial space in the arts and cultural district.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED that in furtherance of the above-stated desire and intent of the Common Council, Article VII of the Code of the City of Burlington (Zoning) will be amended to add §207-93 as follows:

207-93 ARTS AND CULTURAL DISTRICT

1. Zone districts.
The Arts and Cultural District (ACD) is hereby added to the list of approved Zone Districts within the City of Burlington.
2. Intent. It is the intent of the Arts and Cultural District (ACD) to exist for the following reasons:
  - a. Arts and cultural businesses add diversity to the City's economy;
  - b. The City's economy will be positively impacted by an influx of artistic and culturally-related businesses and organizations because they will generate jobs and revenue;
  - c. Burlington City's residents, neighboring business owners in other districts, and visitors will be positively impacted.
3. District boundaries established.
  - a. The boundaries of the City of Burlington's Arts and Cultural District are as set forth on the map entitled "City of Burlington Arts and Cultural District," as maintained in City Hall, the provisions of which map are incorporated fully herein by reference.

- b. The designation of the area as an Arts and Cultural District shall not in any respect override any applicable City Code regulatory requirement including, but not limited to zoning regulations, fire code, nuisance, and building and property maintenance codes.
4. Examples of arts and culture-related businesses and organizations include:
    - a. A for-profit business or not-for-profit organization that presents live performances of theatre, dance, music, or other imaginative work and/or produces or exhibits physical works created by, or under the direction of one or more artists, which are intended for unique production or limited reproduction, including for-profit businesses and not-for-profit organizations involved in instruction of arts and cultural forms.
    - b. A for-profit business or not-for-profit organization that offers a technical and/or administrative support function to the operation of an arts and cultural activity: marketing; public relations; graphic design and publishing; booking and travel services; IT, internet and social media services; consulting and planning services for arts and cultural activity; provision of technical equipment and expertise related to arts performance and presentation.
    - c. Museums or historic sites, the primary mission of which is education, history, or historic preservation, shall also qualify as arts and culture organizations.
    - d. General consumer-oriented food retailers such as restaurants, cafés, coffee and tea shops, and delicatessens.
    - e. A “creative economy business” whose primary economic activities are the generation or utilization of innovation, knowledge and information involving individual creativity, skill and talent which activities have a potential for wealth and job creation through the generation of ideas, products and/or services. Standard categories may include, but are not limited to: advertising, architecture, art and antiques, designing computer games or software, culinary arts, crafts, design, designer fashion, film and video, music, performing arts, theatre, publishing, TV and radio.
  5. Future additions to this Ordinance.

The Common Council for the City of Burlington may choose at a future time to amend and expand the provisions of this Ordinance.

Upon the motion of Councilwoman Woodard, seconded by Councilwoman Hatala, the foregoing ordinance was introduced.

Public Comments

Danny Kiple, 843 Woodland Avenue- this is in the Historic District; there are limitations on signage in the area; suggested to work with the Historic Commission to make sure the signage is correct.

Council Comments
