

Director's Profile

Public Affairs Department operates under the leadership of John Alexander, who has worked since 1979 in radio, print, and other media for public and private individuals and organizations. He has been active in educational and government organizations since 1987.